

organise, track & share your gardening adventures!

MyFolia.com is a free, online garden organizer and journal. At MyFolia, you can track your plants, analyze their progress, and connect with other gardeners. You can tap into the combined knowledge of gardeners from all over the world (and next door) to help you succeed. You'll find all sorts of gardeners at Myfolia, from newbie to veteran. And, you'll find all sorts of gardens: from pots on a windowsill, balcony and patio gardens, and modest backyard efforts, to community gardens and large-scale efforts at production. Most of all, MyFolia is an exercise in serendipity—you never know what you'll discover.
